Types of Partnership Program

RESELLER PROGRAM:

In a reseller program, other businesses (resellers) sell can sell our product to their own customers. Resellers earn a commission on sales and may also provide customer support. This program can help us tap into new markets and leverage the resellers' existing customer base.

REFERRAL PROGRAM:

A referral program encourages existing customers, partners, or even individuals to refer potential customers to our product. Referrers may receive rewards, discounts, or commissions for successful referrals. This program can help us acquire new customers through word-of-mouth and recommendations.

AFFILIATE PROGRAM:

Similar to referral programs, affiliate programs involve individuals or companies promoting our product through online marketing channels. Affiliates earn commissions for each sale they generate through their promotional efforts.

CHANNEL PARTNERSHIP PROGRAM:

Work with third-party intermediaries, such as consultants or agencies, to promote and sell our product to their clients. These partners can provide additional services and insights to customers.

We are excited to introduce our new Partnership Program for our innovative EDNECT educational ERP software. We are offering an attractive partnership strategy and offer a lucrative incentive of 10% up to 15 % commission on sales incentive and offer additional incentive for meeting and exceeding the agreed targets. By joining us you will not only gain access to our cutting-edge technology but also benefit from our lucrative revenue sharing model. This partnership is designed to foster mutual growth and success.

Together, we can tap into new markets, broaden our customer base and create strong, collaborative ecosystem.
